

PLATINA FINANCE LIMITED

Private Equity

INVESTMENT MANAGERS • LONDON & PARIS • COMPETITIVE SALARY, BONUS & CARRY

Platina Finance is a European private equity fund which specialises in small mid-market buyouts, investing in industrial and business to business service companies with an enterprise value of up to €50 million. With c. €200m of assets under management and operating from offices in London and Paris, the team invests in MBO/MBI, development capital and turnaround situations.

Having just completed a first close on its second buy-out fund, opportunities exist for exceptional individuals to join the team at Investment Manager level, based in either London or Paris.

As an Investment Manager you will work in a small team of talented investment professionals and assume a high level of responsibility. This will include all aspects of investment activity from the origination and evaluation of potential transactions, to the execution and monitoring of investments on a pan-European basis.

Candidates should have one, or a combination, of the following backgrounds:

- Private Equity or Leveraged Finance with a focus on mid-market transactions;
- Strategy Consulting, with a focus on transaction due diligence, within a leading consulting firm;
- Transaction Services, Corporate Finance or Restructuring within a leading accounting firm; or
- M&A with a mid-market focus within an investment bank, or leading M&A boutique.

In addition to relevant transaction experience, candidates must display a high level of commercial acumen and entrepreneurial judgement. Applicants should also be fluent in French.
